What is the service we offer?

Whether as a business or an individual, it is unfortunate, but inevitable, that disputes sometimes arise. When they do, we at Barker Son & Isherwood LLP can help. Our ethos is this:

- We will do everything that we can to help to prevent disputes arising or to see if there is any way in which the problem can be resolved at an early stage.
- We will give you honest advice about your position, both in terms of the strengths and weaknesses of your case.
- If you do become involved in a court case, we will give you full support and advice through to trial.

Who is it for?

We can provide expert advice and assistance in the following areas:

- Contract disputes
- Commercial and residential property disputes
- Landlord and tenant problems
- Inheritance claims and Will disputes
- Negligence and nuisance claims
- Building disputes
- Boundary disputes

Disputes can be time-consuming and costly. We will consider Alternative Dispute Resolution and Mediation. We will explore the options you might have for funding any Court proceedings. We will keep you informed at the outset and throughout your case about costs.

How the service works

At Barker Son & Isherwood LLP, your case will be handled by a litigation specialist. Our aim is to give a superior quality service to all our clients. At the same time, we aim to give individual attention - which means that, by and large, your case will be handled throughout by the same people.
