

How much will it cost?

Your initial interview is free. We may be able to act for you where you have existing legal expenses insurance cover or deal with your claim under a Conditional Fee Agreement (no win, no fee), if your case is suitable. We will be happy to advise you about costs at your first interview.

We aim to ensure that you pay no costs, win or lose and keep all your compensation if you are successful. We can explain simply how this works.
